COLLEGE OF NURSING, BABA EDUCATIONAL SOCIETY REPORT ON DANDIYA NIGHT

On October 9, 2024, COLLEGE OF NURSING BABA EDUCATIONAL SOCIETY celebrated Garba Night at the Navratri festivities. The event saw enthusiastic participation from students, faculty, and staff, creating a vibrant and memorable cultural experience.

The evening began with an introduction to the significance of Garba, where the host highlighted its cultural and religious importance, honoring the power of Goddess Durga and symbolizing the victory of good over evil. This was followed by the recitation of the Shri Durga Stuti, setting a spiritual tone for the evening. The event was inaugurated with the ceremonial Lighting of the Lamp. A traditional Devi Puja and Aarti were performed, to seek blessings of Goddess Durga for peace, prosperity, and success. All attendees participated in this sacred ceremony.

A musical highlight was the Garba performance by students whose soulful renditions of traditional and popular Garba songs energized the crowd and set the stage for the main event.
