Decorations represent the victory of light over darkness, good over evil. Their illustrations replicate the lighting of earthen lamps to guide Lord Rama home after exile. The total report of decorations heralds the triumph over demons. This celebration remains joyful today.

Divali is celebrated for a variety of reasons, including:

The return of Lord Rama to the world after his exile. Lord Rama, his wife Sita, and brother Lakshmana return to Ayodhya after 14 years in exile. The people of Ayodhya welcomed them with lit lamps to symbolize the victory of good over evil.

The defeat of Narakasura by Hindu mythology Lord Krishna, an avatar of Lord Vishnu, defeats the demon King Narakasura. This victory symbolizes the triumph of good over evil and light over dark.

The coronation of King Vikramaditya-II is believed that King Vikramaditya ascended the throne at Ujjain and launched a new calendar to celebrate. This calendar is still used for religious purposes today.

The spiritual awakening of Lord Mahavira-The Jain community celebrates Diwali to mark the spiritual awakening of their Lord Mahavira.

The worship of Goddess Lakshmi-It is a day homage to Goddess Lakshmi, the goddess of wealth and prosperity, to ensure her benedictions for a beautiful harvest.

Diwali is celebrated with lamps, candles, and fireworks, and people wear special clothes.

Firecrackers represent the victory of light over darkness, good over evil. Their illumination represents the lighting of earthen lamps to guide Lord Rama home after exile. The loud भगवान संकर के बाद वैदिक ऋषि-मुनियों से ही योग का प्रारम्भ माना
