Duration:	3 Hours
Venue:	College Campus

Event Brief & Highlights:

On the 1st of October, 2022, our college, Baba Educational Society, Institute of Paramedical, College of Nursing, organized Dandiya Night and Raas Garba Event under the supervision of our Principal Mam, Dr. Archana Chouhan.

Celebrating the Hindu deity Shakti, meaning Strength or Power, 'Nava' means 'Nine' and 'Ratri' means nights in Sanskrit. The nine forms of Shakti/Devi are worshipped with Dandiya Raas a traditional folk dance of Vrindavan. Dandiya (the colorful wooden sticks), the costume (chaniya choli) and the dance (Garba) the Navratri combination is incomplete without them. The Dandiya Raas has men and women in two circles, dancing to the beats of the Dhol (drum) with the sticks (dandiya) colliding to produce a uniform sound. The Live orchestra is the real essence of Navratri, with special singers brought in for the occasion. The origin of Garba is for devotional reasons which were performed in honor of Goddess Durga. The dance form is a mock fight between the Goddess and Mahishasura, the mighty demon-king.

The event in our college too was colorful and bright. The entire college campus was decked up with lights and decorated with varieties of festoons. All the teachers and students wore the traditional costume (chaniya/ choli) adding more beauty to the evening. The program started with the Arti of Devi Shakti by our honorable Director Sir, Mr. R.K. Bajpayee. The event was then started with different groups of students performing Garba. The female faculties also presented a beautiful Garba dance together. Later, everybody danced heart fully to the various songs played by the DJ.

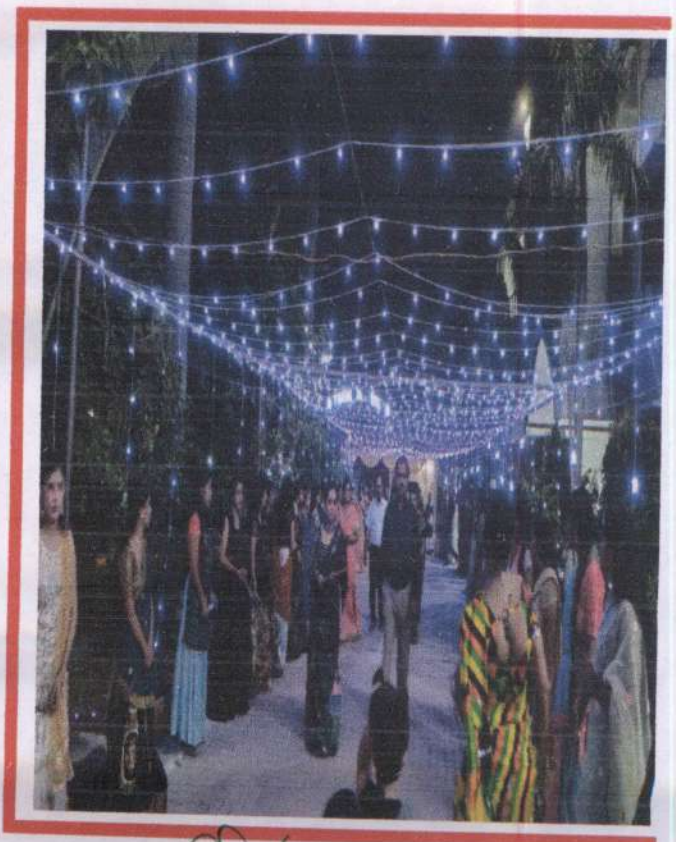

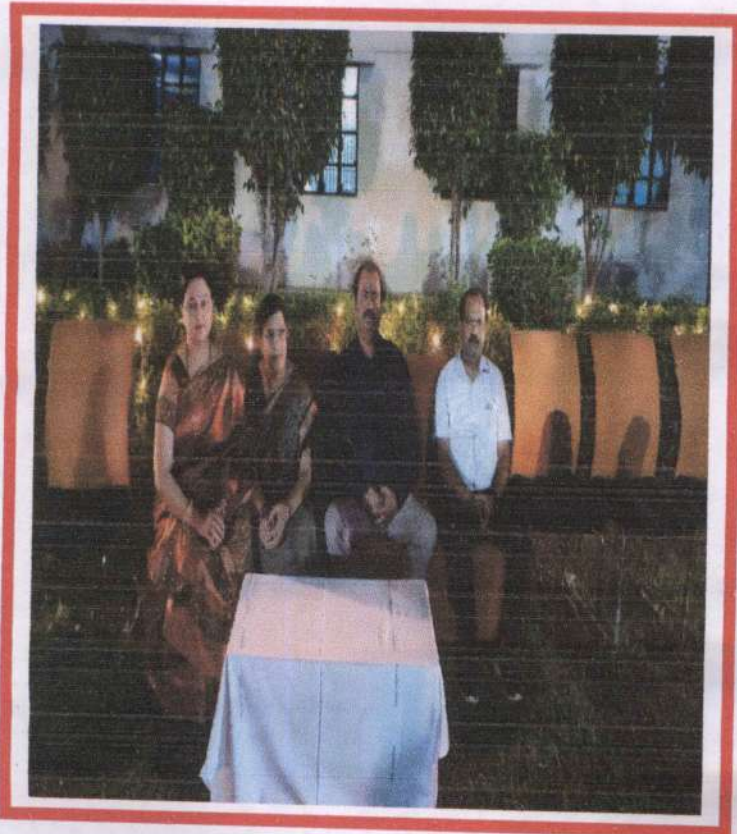

The evening ended with the speech by our Principal Mam, who enlightened us about the Shakti present within ourselves, to choose wisely what is right and what is wrong. There was dinner organized for everyone after which all departed.
